

NASP® Instructor, Trainer and Specialist Requirements

Instructor (BAI):

Requirements:	Must be at least 18 years old. (and)
	Must attend a BAI class and pass a BAI practical exam and score at least 80% on the exam.
Retention:	Must present/teach/coach a minimum of 10 hours of NASP® archery lessons each school year (Sept 1 – Aug 31). (and)
	Must submit an on-line teaching activity report (naspbai.org) lessons each school year (Sept 1 – Aug 31).
Re-activation:	Retake a BAI course and pass the practical exam and score at least 80% on the exam. (or)
	Complete the NASP® On-line Refresher class/exam.

Trainer (BAIT):

Requirements:	Must be at least 21 years old. (and)
	Must have the jurisdiction coordinator's approval to be certified (and)
	Must attend a BAIT class and pass a BAIT practical exam and score at least 85% on the exam.
Retention:	Must teach at least one BAI (Instructor) class every 18 months. (and)
	A BAIT that fails to meet the retention requirement will be changed to a BAI level certification if able to meet the BAI retention requirement.
Re-activation:	Retake a BAIT course and pass the practical exam and score at least 85% on the exam. (or)
	Co-Teach a BAI (Instructor) class with a certified NASP® Specialist (BAITS) within 3 years of teaching a BAI (Instructor) class.

Specialist (BAITS):

Requirements:	Must be at least 21 years old. (and)
	Must have the jurisdiction coordinator's approval to be certified (and)
	Must attain and maintain a BAIT level certification for a minimum of 9 consecutive months. (and)
	Must attend a BAITS class and pass a BAITS practical exam.
Retention:	Must teach at least one BAIT (Trainer) class or one BAI (Instructor) class every 18 months. (and)
	A BAITS that fails to meet the retention requirement will be changed to a BAI level certification if able to meet the BAI retention requirement.
Re-activation:	Retake a BAITS course and pass the practical exam. (or)
	Co-Teach a BAIT (Trainer) class with a certified NASP® Specialist (BAITS) specified by the National NASP® office within 3 years of teaching a BAIT (Trainer) or BAI (Instructor) class.

 please note  The information above is as defined by the national NASP® office. Individual states and provinces reserve the right to implement more stringent requirements. In addition, individual states and provinces reserve the right to determine who may or may not maintain a BAI/BAIT/BAITS certification in their state/province. The national NASP® office reserves the right to revoke the certification of any BAI/BAIT/BAITS if deemed necessary to protect NASP® and any persons associated with the program.